

Weekly Cleaning Schedule

MONDAY

- make beds
- unload dishwasher
- run ONE load of laundry
- sweep/vacuum floors in main living areas
- fold and put away that ONE load of clean laundry
- load the dishwasher

Dusting Day
start from the top of your crown molding down to the baseboards and everything in between

TUESDAY

- make beds
- unload dishwasher
- run one load of laundry
- wipe down kitchen cabinets
- wash floors in main living areas
- fold and put away laundry
- load dishwasher

Wood Day
since everything should be nice and free of dust. Go grab your wood polish and a cloth and give all your wooden surfaces a good wipe down. Including your kitchen cabinets (if they're wood)

WEDNESDAY

- make beds
- unload dishwasher
- sweep front door walkway
- sweep and wash kitchen and bathroom floors
- load dishwasher

Counter Top Day
wipe down all of your counters in the kitchen and bathroom.

THURSDAY

- take used bedding off/replace with new
- unload dishwasher
- wash used bedding
- fold and put away bedding
- load dishwasher
- find something to organize

Appliance Day
give your appliances a good scrub down today, run your self cleaning mode in your oven (if you have that) wipe down the inside of your microwave, even give your fridge shelves a quick wipe down.

FRIDAY

- make beds
- unload dishwasher
- run one load of laundry
- clean toilets
- tidy up around the house- pick up shoes, toys and anything else that could be lying around
- fold and put away laundry
- load dishwasher

Glass Day
mirrors, windows, glass frames, shower glass, anything that's glass gets cleaned today.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

- make beds
- empty dishwasher
- clean showers/tubs
- sweep/hose down back porch/patio/balcony
- clean out cars and spray with deodorizer
- load dishwasher

Upholstery Day
vacuum sofas, curtains, chairs, mattresses, headboards ...anything that is fabric then spray with deodorizer spray (i.e. Febreze)